

Immediate Past President: Paul Glover, Storage Choice, Dallas

Paul Glover is Vice President of Storage Choice, a family-owned company that owns and operates 12 facilities in the Dallas and Houston markets with three facilities in development. Paul has been involved in management and acquisitions of self-storage since 1993, and has served on the TSSA board since 2008, serving as the most immediate past president. Paul has participated and chaired numerous committees and task forces. He holds a BA in Finance from the University of Texas at Arlington.